

Contents

3 Editorial (by Silke Fürst & Sébastien Salerno)

General Section

- 9 Dorothee Arlt: Banning burkas and niqabs? Exploring perceptions of bias in media coverage of Islam and Muslims in Switzerland and their relation to people's voting intention concerning the burka-initiative
- 27 Thomas Zerback & Dominique S. Wirz: Appraisal patterns as predictors of emotional expressions and shares on political social networking sites
- 47 Nina Wicke & Monika Taddicken: "I think it's up to the media to raise awareness." Quality expectations of media coverage of climate change from the audience's perspective
- 71 Michael V. Reiss, Noemi Festic, Michael Latzer, & Tanja Rüedy: The relevance internet users assign to algorithmic-selection applications in everyday life

Thematic Section

- 93 Cornelia Brantner & Helena Stehle: Visibility in the digital age: Introduction
- 99 Claudia Wilhelm: Gendered (in)visibility in digital media contexts
- 115 Darryl A. Pieber: Filtered in / filtered out: Locative media apps and social accessibility in urban spaces
- 129 Julia Metag: Tension between visibility and invisibility: Science communication in new information environments
- 145 Christine Linke & Elizabeth Prommer: From fade-out into spotlight: An audio-visual character analysis (ACIS) on the diversity of media representation and production culture
- 163 Dafne Calvo: The (in)visible barriers to free software: Inequalities in online communities in Spain

Community

- 181 Bettina Nyffeler: Nachruf Dr. Jost Aregger (1960–2021)

Reviews and Reports

- 185 Ulrich van der Heyden: Ingo von Münch. «Die Krise der Medien»
- 189 Silke Fürst: "Public communication science in times of the Covid-19 crisis": DACH 21 preconference
- 197 Philipp Bachmann: Conference report "#Communication #(R)Evolution Changing Communication in a Digital Society": DACH 21 – Three-Country Conference on Communication Science (DGPuK, ÖGK, and SGKM)